
Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities

The Departmental Auditorium
Constitution Avenue
between 12th and 14th Streets, Northwest
in the City of Washington

Admission by ticket only

Please return enclosed card by Wednesday, April 18, 1990

National Endowment for the Humanities
Washington, D.C. 20506

The National Endowment for the Humanities requests the honor of your presence at the Nineteenth Annual Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities

"Western Civilization: A View from the East"

by
Bernard Lewis
Cleveland E. Dodge Professor of Near Eastern Studies Emeritus
Princeton University

Wednesday, May 2, 1990
8 p.m.

Th Jefferson

Request for Tickets
1990 Jefferson Lecture
Wednesday, May 2, 1990
Washington, D.C.

Name _____
Last First Initial

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Telephone _____
Daytime Evening

Number of Tickets _____ (limit 2 per request)

Tickets will be issued in order of receipt of request
Please reply by Wednesday, April 18, 1990

Th Jefferson

The National Endowment for the Humanities presents the Nineteenth Annual
Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities
"Western Civilization: A View from the East"

by
Bernard Lewis

Wednesday, May 2, 1990
8 p.m.

The Departmental Auditorium
Constitution Avenue between 12th and 14th Streets, Northwest
in the City of Washington

Dessert reception to follow
at the National Museum of American History
Constitution Avenue

*Admit one
No reserved seats
Admission by ticket only*

National Endowment for the Humanities
Washington, D.C. 20506

The National Endowment
for the Humanities
presents the

Jefferson Lecture
in the Humanities

The National Endowment
for the Humanities
Washington, D.C.

Wednesday, May 2, 1990

Hoover Institution
Stanford University
Stanford, California

Thursday, May 10, 1990

Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities

Th Jefferson

Jefferson Lecture and Reception
Thursday, May 10, 1990

☐ (I/We) will attend the lecture
☐ (I/We) will not attend the lecture
☐ (I/We) will attend the reception
☐ (I/We) will not attend the reception

Name

Address

Dr. John Raisian
Hoover Institution
Stanford, CA 94305

Th Jefferson

The National Endowment for the Humanities
and
the Hoover Institution, Stanford University, request the honor of your presence at the
Nineteenth Annual Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities

"Western Civilization: A View from the East"

by
Bernard Lewis
Cleveland E. Dodge Professor of Near Eastern Studies Emeritus
Princeton University

May 10, 1990

Lecture 7:30 p.m.
Kresge Auditorium
Stanford University

R.S.V.P. (415) 723-4163
or return enclosed card

Reception to follow
Stauffer Auditorium
Hoover Institution

Dr. Hillel Fradkin, Vice President for Programs at the Bradley Foundation (Milwaukee, Wisconsin), and NEH Council Member introduces the 19th Annual Jefferson Lecturer, Dr. Bernard Lewis.

Dr. Bernard Lewis, 19th Jefferson Lecturer in the Department of Humanities, presenting his lecture, "Western Civilization: A View from the East."

NEH Chairman Lynne V. Cheney presents the Library of America Thomas Jefferson Volume to Dr. Lewis.

NEH Chairman Lynne V. Cheney presents the Thomas Jefferson Lithograph to Dr. Lewis.

Dr. Lewis meets Gertrude Himmelfarb, Emeritus professor of history
Graduate School, City University of New York.

Dan Naatz and Elizabeth Cheney chat with Dr. Lewis and
Mrs. Cheney

Bernard Lewis and his daughter-in-law, Jessica.

Bernard Lewis and Dory Teipel of Potter Teipel Associates take out a few minutes to sit down and chat.

Celeste Colgan, NEH Deputy Chairman, chats with Robert Young, Executive Director, Wyoming Council for the Humanities, and John Warnock, State Council Member.

Bernard Lewis and his assistant Leigh Faden.

Amy E. Schwartz, Washington Post Editorial Page, talks with Mrs. Cheney.

Karen Meyers, NEH Public Affairs Specialist, David McClure, Sharon Hall's husband, Parker Orr, friend of John McGrath and Manager of Olsson's Book and Record Store, Sharon Hall, NEH Secretary Media Relations, John Breslin, S.J., Georgetown University Press, and John McGrath, NEH Assistant Director Office of Publications and Public Affairs

Bernard Lewis talks to Victor Swensen, Executive Director, The Vermont Council on the Humanities.

Mary Lou Beatty, Editor, Humanities Magazine, talks to George Farr, Director, NEH Office of Preservation and Mrs. Farr.

Bill Wright, NEH Council Member, Jane Renner Hood, Executive Director, Nebraska Humanities Council, Jo Taylor, Chair, Humanities Division Wayne State College.

Dr. Lewis and Marvin Kalb, Director, Harvard's Shorenstein Barone Center on the Press, Politics and Public Policy.

Kristen Colgen, daughter of NEH Deputy Chairman Celeste Colgen, talks with Guinevere Griest, Director, NEH Division of Fellowships and Seminars.

Ronald Means, Executive Director, Michigan Council for the Humanities, Nancy Kless, Staff Member Michigan Council for the Humanities Public Relations Office, Jane Hale, Michigan Council for the Humanities member, Carl Dolan, NEH Coordinator for Access to Excellence Program (Outreach Program), and NEH Chairman, Lynne Cheney.

Ronald Means, Executive Director, Michigan Council for the Humanities and Charles Garfinkel, NEH Deputy Inspector General.

John Reed, NEH Council Member, Leon
Bramson, Program Officer, NEH
Division of Fellowships and Seminars,
Mrs. M. Bramson, and Jack Hogan, former
NEH staff member.

Tim Matthewson, Program Officer, NEH
State Programs, George Tanabe,
Chairman, Hawaii Committee for the Humanities and Annette Law, Executive Director, Hawaii Committee for the Humanities.

Don Gibson, Director, NEH General Programs (Public Programs), talks with Robert Vaughan, Executive Director, Virginia Foundation for Humanities and Public Policy.

Floral display at the reception following the lecture, National Museum of American History.

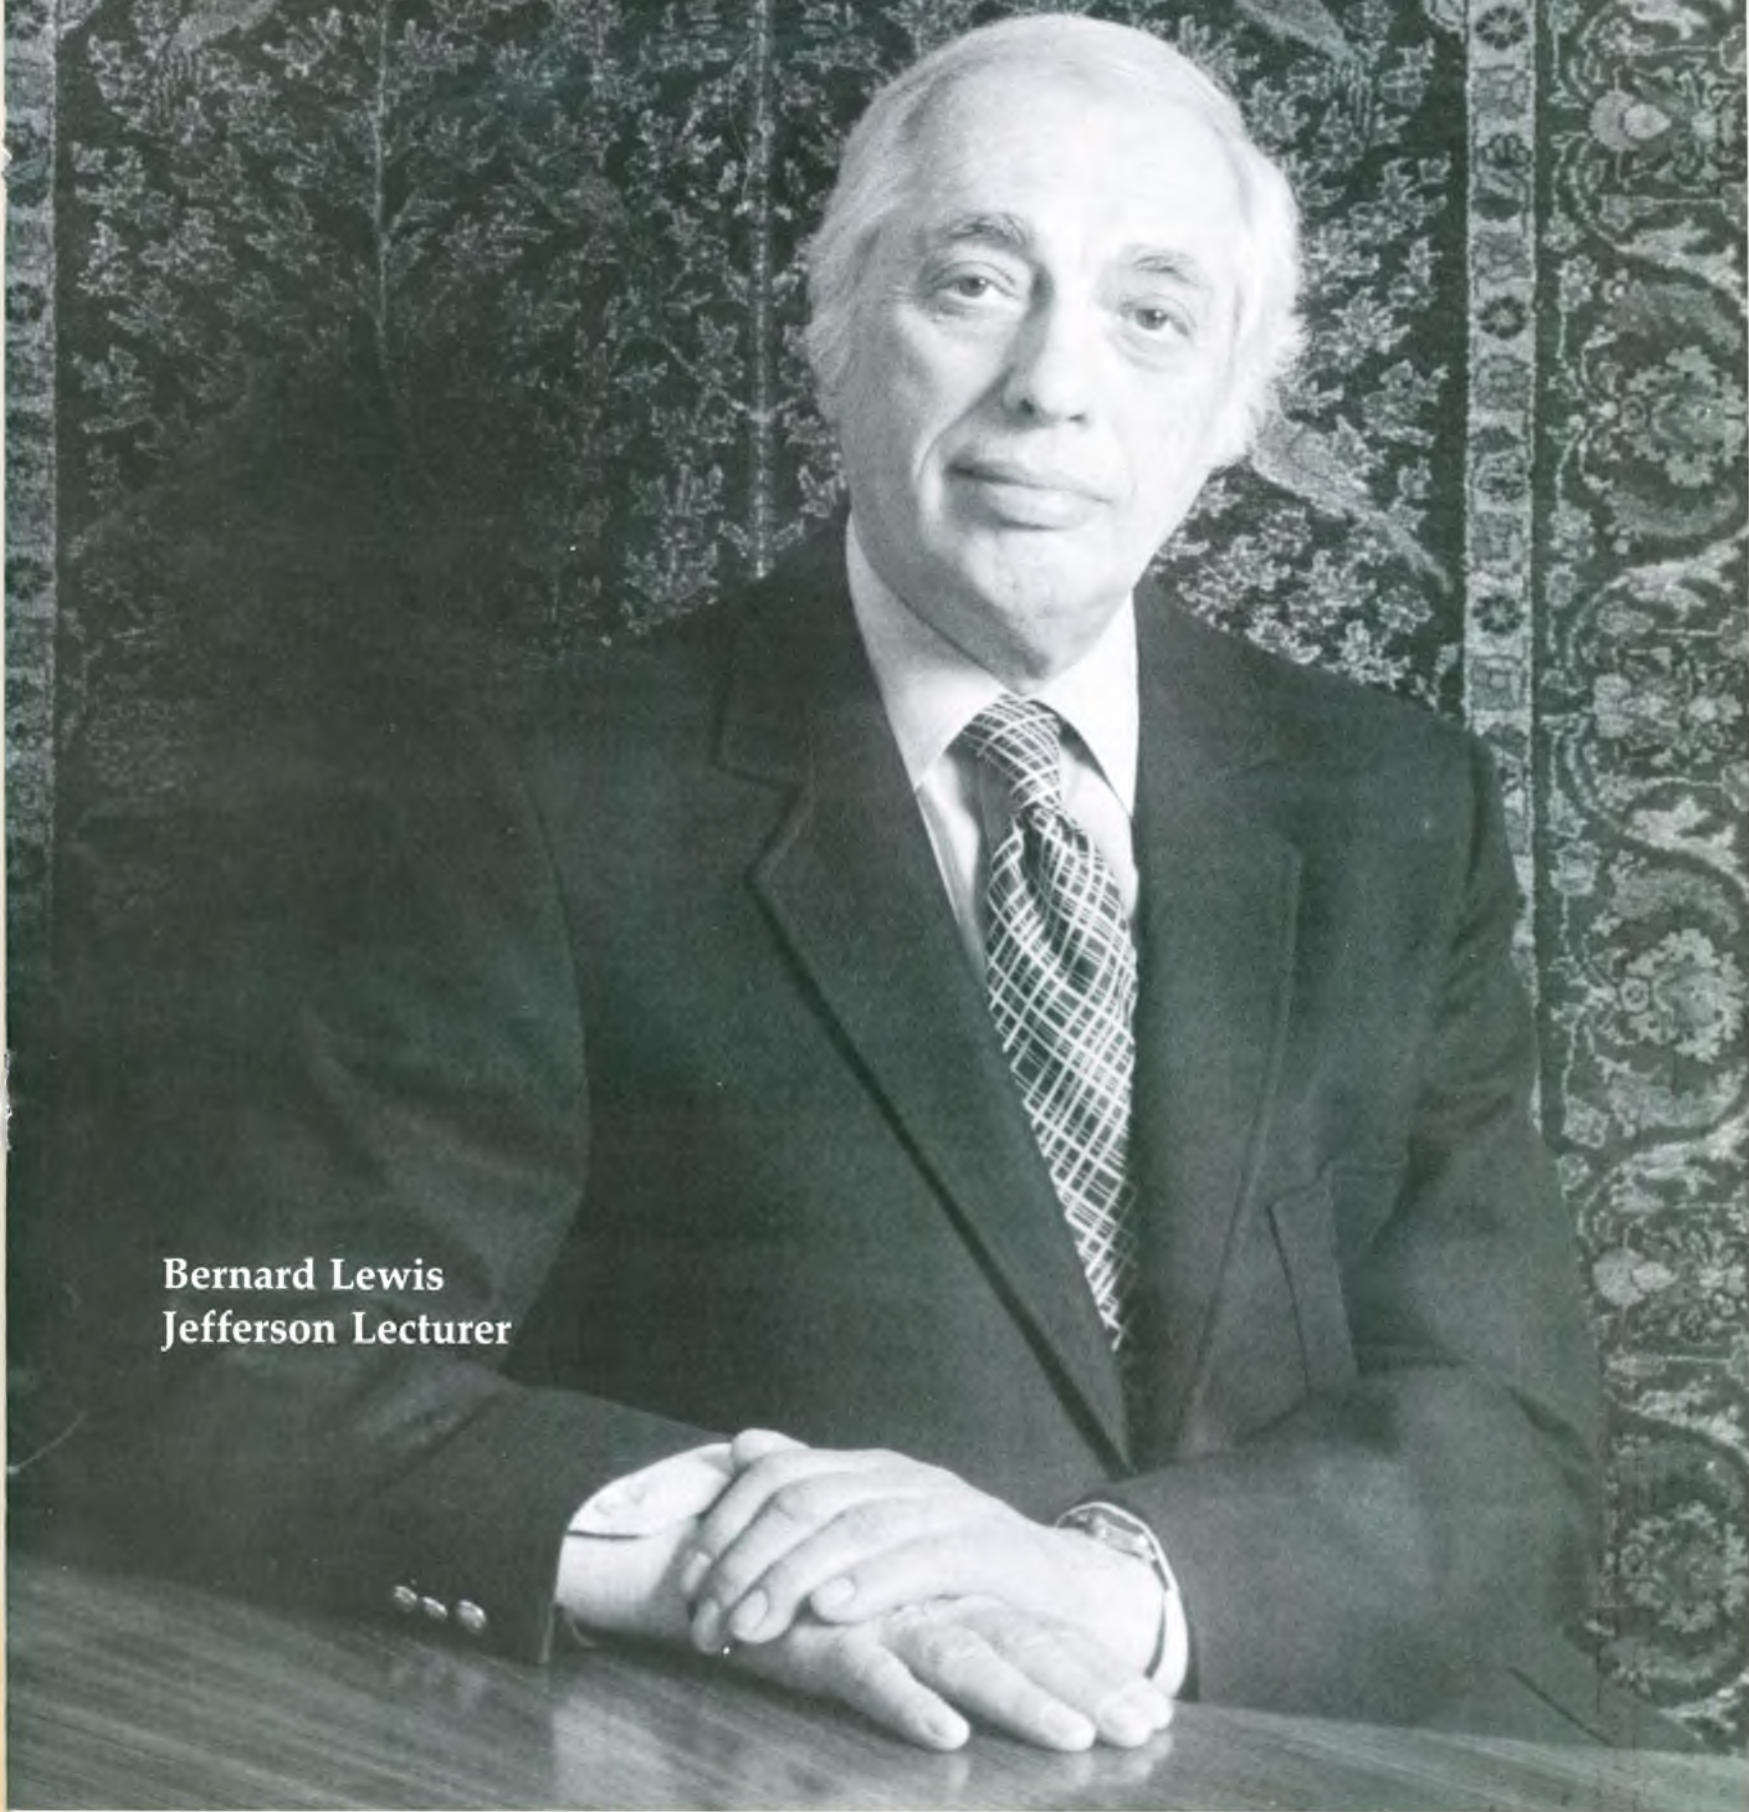

Joy Evans, NEH Public Information Officer, Pam Gilmore and Dory Teipel of Potter Teipel Associates, and Marguerite Sullivan, Director, NEH Communications Policy.

Humanities

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES • VOLUME 11 • NUMBER 3 • MAY/JUNE 1990

Bernard Lewis
Jefferson Lecturer

Insight

Volume 12, Number 6 June 8, 1990
National Endowment for the Humanities

Bernard Lewis Delivers West Coast Jefferson Lecture

Bernard Lewis delivered the nineteenth Jefferson Lecture in the Humanities for the second time on May 10 in an event jointly sponsored by Stanford University and the Hoover Institution on War and Peace.

The West Coast program included a welcome from the Hoover Institution's Director John Raisian, opening remarks from NEH Chairman Lynne V. Cheney, and an introduction from Stanford's Dean of Humanities and Sciences, Ewart A. C. Thomas.

Six hundred guests attended the lecture, which was followed by a reception at the Hoover Institution.

Currently in the midst of its centennial celebration, Stanford University has among its 1,315 faculty members nine Nobel laureates and five Pulitzer Prize winners, as well as 130 members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and twelve winners of the National Medal of Science.

Jefferson Lecturer Bernard Lewis receives congratulations from former NEH Council Member Gertrude Himmelfarb after the Washington lecture.

The Hoover Institution was founded by Herbert Hoover in 1919. It contains one of the largest private archives and most complete libraries in the world on economic, political, and social change in the twentieth century, as well as a major scholarly press. In addition to Stanford students, faculty, and resident scholars, users of the library and archives include scholars from throughout the United States and other nations who come to conduct research in the area collections on Africa, the Middle East, East Asia, Russia, Latin America, North America, and Eastern and Western Europe.

Chairman Lynne V. Cheney at her swearing-in ceremony with her husband Dick Cheney, the Secretary of Defense, and their daughter Elizabeth.

Chairman Cheney Begins Second Term

Chairman Lynne V. Cheney was sworn in for her second consecutive term as Chairman of the Endowment on May 24. She is the first Chairman to hold a second term. Deputy Chairman Celeste Colgan delivered opening remarks. Cheney's husband Dick Cheney, the Secretary of Defense, and their daughter Elizabeth attended the ceremony. It was followed by a coffee reception for Endowment employees.

That's All
Folks.

National Endowment for the Humanities

Office of Publications
and
Public Affairs

Public Information, Room 406
1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20506

202/786-0438

September 26, 1990

TO: 1. ~~Mary Lou~~
2. ~~John~~

GM
JP
SQJ
KH
HAC
KLM
SKH
KR

Time for a breather.

Thought you might like to see the Jefferson Lecture photo album-- you might even find yourself pictured. Pass it around at your next unit meeting, then give it back to me. Thanks.

Joy
Joy

10/9/90
and reviewed by PIO staff.
Joy